K. Hovnanian Trade Partners Build Holiday Cheer for East Brunswick Family

Brett Fegel, 5, and his parents, Fred and Kristen, peek inside a gift bag containing a New Jersey Devils cap, one of several gifts presented to the family by the K. Hovnanian Trade Partners Council. The group, made up of suppliers and subcontractors who work on K. Hovnanian Homes, teamed with the Embrace Kids Foundation to help make the Fegels' holiday a little brighter. Both father and son have cancer, and Kristen is home, taking care of them and Kelly, Brett's 3-year-old sister. The family, from East Brunswick, asked for luggage for a planned Make-A-Wish trip to Disney World. In addition to the luggage and the cap, the Trade Partners gave the family clothing, toys and gift certificates. "Usually, we work together to build a quality home for a family," said Mike Kelly, K. Hovnanian's vice president of construction services. Kelly coordinates the Council. "It was nice to build a happier holiday for a family by helping them directly."
